DECLARATION OF J. SCOTT TARBUTTON PURSUANT TO THE COURT’S APRIL 6, 2022 ORDER AND INSTRUCTIONS TO THE FEDERAL INSURANCE PLAINTIFFS (ECF NO. 7833)

I, J. Scott Tarbutton, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare under penalty of perjury, that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice pro hac vice in the above-captioned matter, and a member of the law firm Cozen O’Connor. I submit this Declaration pursuant to the Court’s April 6, 2022 Order entering partial final judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) against defendant the Taliban and in favor of the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs, awarding prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent, compounded annually, lifting the stay imposed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62(a) so that the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs may execute on and enforce the judgment immediately, and directing the Clerk of the Court to enter final judgment (ECF No. 7833).

2. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the April 6, 2022 Order at ECF No. 7833.

3. Contemporaneous with the Court’s award of prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent, compounded annually, the Court’s Order instructs the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs to file a document calculating the prejudgment interest to aid the Clerk of the Court in preparing the final judgment. ECF No. 7833 at p. 3.

4. For purposes of calculating the prejudgment interest relative to the $3,117,082,655.33 compensatory damages award, I used a compound interest calculator, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

5. Using the annual compounding rate of 4.96%, I calculated prejudgment interest accrued in the amount of $5,321,558,154.65 between September 11, 2001 and April 6, 2022, the date of the Court's Order entering partial final judgment against defendant the Taliban and in favor of the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs. See Exhibit 2.

6. Thus, as of the date of the Court's April 6, 2022 Order at ECF No. 7833, the total amount of the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs' compensatory damages, including prejudgment interest on that amount, is $8,438,640,809.98.

Executed in Philadelphia, PA on April 7, 2022.

J. Scott Tarbutton, Esq.

GEORGE B. DANIELS, United States District Judge:

This document relates to:

Fed. Ins. Co. v. al Qaida, Case No. 03-cv-06978

Certain plaintiffs in Fed. Ins. Co. v. al Qaida, No. 03-cv-06978 (the “Federal Insurance Plaintiffs”) move for a partial final default judgment against the Taliban under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b). (Case No. 03-md-1570, ECF No. 7496.) This Motion is GRANTED.

A default judgment against the Taliban and others, including Al Qaeda and Hezbollah, was entered in favor of the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs on April 7, 2006. (Case No. 03-md-1570, ECF No. 1755.) The Federal Insurance Plaintiffs’ total damages against Al Qaeda were assessed at $9,351,247,965.99. (Case No. 03-md-1570, ECF Nos. 2479, 2502.) This assessment was later extended against Hezbollah. (Case No. 03-md-1570, ECF No. 2582.)

Several Plaintiffs in the multi-district litigation have used judgments against the Taliban in an attempt to attach assets of Da Afghanistan Bank held in the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. (See Writ of Execution, Havlish, et al. v. Iran, et al., Case No. 03-cv-9848, ECF No. 526-1.) Parties in other cases have sought prejudgment attachments of these assets as well. (See e.g., Owens v. Taliban, et al., Case No. 22-cv-1949, ECF Nos. 32, 33.)

There are more than a dozen motions for default judgment against the Taliban pending in the multi-district litigation. The Federal Insurance Plaintiffs’ motion is the most procedurally advanced. Liability and damages have already been determined as to Al Qaeda and Hezbollah. It is appropriate to extend these prior liability and damages determinations to the Taliban.

The Court will continue to adjudicate pending default judgment motions as efficiently as possible. The Court encourages all plaintiffs to continue to meet and propose strategies for an efficient and fair process to adjudicate pending default judgment motions.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth in the Court's Order at Case No. 03-md-1570, ECF No. 2502, adopting the Report and Recommendation at Case No. 03-md-1570, ECF No. 2479, partial final default judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) is entered against the Taliban and in favor of the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs in the following amounts:

Total Award	$3,117,082,655.33	$9,351,247,965.99

The Federal Insurance Plaintiffs are also awarded prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent, compounded annually. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62(a), the stay normally imposed under that Rule is lifted. The Federal Insurance Plaintiffs may execute on and enforce the judgment immediately. The Clerk of the Court is respectfully directed to prepare and enter a final judgment. To aid this preparation, the Federal Insurance Plaintiffs shall file a document calculating the prejudgment interest at their earliest convenience.
